

Dr. Harriet L. Jaworowski has been with the district since July 2006. She has previously worked in Isle of Wight, Virginia, Anderson County and Aiken County in SC and at the University of South Carolina Aiken. She is originally from SC and actually attended elementary school in Rock Hill. She considers Moncks Corner, SC her home.

As Associate Superintendent for Instruction and Accountability, Dr. Jaworowski's responsibilities include curriculum and instruction in all content areas 4K-grade 12, Exceptional Student Education, Gifted Education, English as a Second Language, access to and interpretation of student achievement data, and oversight of all federal programs and funding. Additionally, she works as a liaison to Winthrop University, the Chamber of Commerce and the Boys and Girls Club of York County.

Dr. Jaworowski earned her bachelors degree from Furman University in biology, her Masters in Science Education from the University of South Carolina and her doctorate in Educational Policy Planning and Leadership from The College of William and Mary. She has presented at local, state, national and international conferences including the International Science Teachers Conference in Jamaica and the US China Conference on Educational Leadership. Presentation topics include science teaching, public awareness on science issues, school leadership, school climate and district and school accountability.

She has received multiple honors and awards including the Sigma Xi Outstanding Science Teacher, Delta Gamma Kappa International Scholarship, Teacher of the Year, and was inducted into the Kappa Delta Pi Honor Society.

Her community and committee work include the Boys and Girls Club of York County Board, Reading Recovery State Advisory Board, Rock Hill Area Chamber Council, and she is an active member of Oakland Baptist Church. She has also served to organize the first Virginia Staff Development Council.