

MEET THE TEACHER

HEATHER KING

EXPERIENCE

My name is Heather King. I teach small reading groups as a District Interventionist. This will be my 18th year of teaching and my 4th year at York Road. Go Bulldogs!! Before being an interventionist, I taught 4th grade for 13 years and was a kindergarten assistant for 1 year.

MY EDUCATION

- Bachelors of Education from the University of Florida
- Masters of Education from the University of Florida
- I am in the process of working on my +18.

CONTACT INFORMATION

Email: haking@rhmail.org
Call: 803-981-1950

QUOTE FOR THE YEAR

"There is always light. If only we're brave enough to see it. If only we're brave enough to be it."

~ Amanda Gorman ~

ABOUT ME

I grew up as a military kid and have lived in quite a few places. All through my elementary school years I lived in Okinawa, Japan. I have lived in pretty much every southeastern state. My husband, Kyle, and I have 2 kiddos. Kaelin is 19 and is a sophomore at St. John's College in Annapolis, Maryland. Connor is 17 and is a senior at Northwestern. Both of them have been a part of the NW band program, and I am an avid BAND MOM! I enjoy adventure and love riding my bike and going hiking. I am looking forward to another great year at York Road!