Program Services

PERSONAL VISITS

Prenatal and parent education is provided to teens regarding their child's development. During personal visit, Parent Educators interact with the parent and child in their natural setting to better serve the unique needs of the family and provide developmental information and support for them. Developmental assessments offered to children birth to five years of age.

GROUP MEETINGS

Prenatal and parenting sessions are offered relating to the needs of teen parents in order to strengthen parenting skills in a supportive group setting. Visit your guidance counselor for details.

ParentSMART & Me

Guided activities for parents and children to learn and play together at the center.

RESOURCE LIBRARY

Parent resource books, magazines and a variety of educational items provided to parents on a lending basis.

COMMUNITY RESOURCES

Information, assistance and referrals provided for families with various needs; including details for obtaining childcare, medical services, and community programs.
