

Culinary Arts

Jenkins

Corey Ostrower is the Star Student for Culinary Arts II Management program. Corey is being honored because he demonstrates the skills and attributes that employers value.

Not only is Corey a well-behaved student but he takes pride in all his assignments ensuring that everything is done correctly and on time. He currently has the highest-grade average in the class. During lab days no matter what his group's responsibilities are; he always assures that his group's duties are done and done to standard. Corey is currently employed at The Pulp in Rock Hill he constantly shares stories with me and his classmates about what he's learned in class and incorporates it while working. He demonstrates all the ability to take initiative and enterprise for others to follow. When asked to do something Corey achieves superior results with minimum guidance. He is definitely someone I'd love to see further in his culinary career!
