Historically, the term “guidance counselor” was used to refer to counselors working in the schools. This term has evolved to “school counselor” as the scope of duties has changed and evolved. Although some schools still used the outdated “guidance counselor” term, the American School Counselor Association encourages the use of “school counselor” to more accurately reflect the role.

COUNSELOR SPAIN TEACHES STUDENTS TO SAY:

- I can train my brain. I am the boss of my brain. I am brave. I am smart and strong.
- Any job in the world could be for a boy and could be for a girl.
- I believe in me (myself). There is power in we (us).
- I won't give up when things go wrong.
- My voice matters. I should be a responsible reporter. I believe in good.
