Remote Learning Round 2- Drama (7th and 8th)

April 2nd and 3rd are for you to catch up on any of the work you need to.

- April 13-17 will be for us to finish up the rest of the “My Life as a Show” project. There are two assignments left!

Monday, April 13th and Tuesday, April 14th

You need to write a 1-2 page scene based on one of the events from the timeline you created.

Here is what you MUST include in your scene to receive full credit:

1. A character description list of 2 or more characters: You need to list your characters and provide their gender, age, physical appearance, and personality.
2. A scene description: Before you start writing the script, you must include a description of the setting. Tell me where the scene takes place, what time of day, and be detailed about what the stage looks like.
3. A script that is 1-2 pages in length: The lines (script) must be 1-2 pages in length. THE LENGTH REQUIREMENT DOES NOT INCLUDE YOUR CHARACTER DESCRIPTION LIST. THE LINES YOU WRITE MUST EQUAL 1-2 PAGES.
4. Provide a conflict: Conflict (problems) make things interesting! You need to include a conflict for your characters to overcome.
5. Resolution: The resolution is how your conflict is solved at the end of your scene.

Wednesday, April 15th

The last step of this project is to cast actors to play the characters from the scene you wrote for assignment #6.

You must use famous actors to cast in your show, even cast someone to play yourself!

Thursday, April 16th and Friday, April 17th

These two days are for you to catch up on any work that you are behind on for this week!
