Zeal Education Group Retained to Lead Rock Hill, SC Superintendent Search

Rock Hill, SC – The Rock Hill Schools Board of Trustees has selected Zeal Education Group, a national education consulting firm, to lead the Board through a comprehensive, transparent, and community-driven selection process for the district's next superintendent.

"We are committed to identifying a strong, visionary and dynamic leader who will continue advancing academic excellence and student success in Rock Hill Schools," said Helena Miller, Chair of the Rock Hill Schools Board. "We are excited to partner with Zeal to attract exceptional candidates who align with our district's values and priorities, and there will be opportunities for the community to be engaged in the process."

The search process will include a variety of opportunities for community input and stakeholder engagement. Zeal will work closely with the Board, district leadership, educators, parents, and community members to ensure these voices shape the selection criteria and inform decision-making.

"We are honored to partner with Rock Hill Schools in this critical process," said Dr. Jeff Melendez, Founder & CEO of Zeal Education Group. "Our team is excited to partner with the Board to identify a superintendent who will inspire students, empower educators, and build strong relationships with families and the broader community."

The superintendent search will begin immediately, with a targeted completion date of June 1, 2025. The Board will provide regular updates on the process, including opportunities for public engagement.
