

Military Opt-Out

Under the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), districts are required to provide military recruiters with the name, address, and telephone listing of each secondary student served by the district, unless the parent or guardian (or student, for those aged 18 and older) has submitted a prior written request for the information not be released.

Please respond below:

I give permission for my child's name, address and telephone listing to be made available to military recruiters.

- ☐ YES
- ☐ NO

Directory Opt-Out

Additionally, parents or guardians (and adult students aged 18 and older) have the right to opt-out of releasing directory information about their student (themselves) to any third party.

A student's "directory information" includes:

- student name
- student address
- telephone listing
- date and place of birth
- major field of study
- participation in officially recognized activities and athletics teams
- dates of attendance
- degrees received
- most recent educational agency attended by the student
- email addresses
- photographs (including for yearbook and newspaper articles)
- grade level
- awards received

Please respond below:

I give permission for my child's directory information to be made available to a third party.

- ☐ YES
- ☐ NO

If your child turns 18 years old during the upcoming school year, he/she can rescind this permission by contacting his/her counselor following their 18th birthday.

You may also request a hard copy of the Directory and Military Information Opt-Out form directly from your child's school.
